A Welcome Note from the Vicar

Welcome to St Stephens – we are delighted that you are here today.

St Stephen's has existed as a Christian community for over 150 years. We may have been around for a long time but we strive to ensure that we are a fresh and welcoming community where everyone is made welcome and everyone knows that they matter, both to us and to God.

You will find St Stephen's alive with vibrant worship, intimate prayer and growing friendships. We value both the traditional and contemporary and you will find that our different services reflect a variety of ways of worship. Our desire however is that whatever the style, as people meet together they encounter the presence of our living God.

As a Christian community we are committed to following and trying to live like Jesus. We look for ways to love and serve each other and our wider community and seek to provide for those who are often forgotten by society at large.

We hope you will find a spiritual home at St Stephen's and find your place in this community as we seek together to discover more of God's love for his people.

You can help by leaving seed heads to over-winter, providing food for birds; pile up logs, leaves or compost for hedgehogs; leave some leaves on the lawn for worms to draw down, where the birds will find them! Clean bird tables/feeders; dig a pond, or dredge one you have to clear excessive growth of pond plants. And if you don't have a garden, consider a feeder to stick to a window - available from RSPB Shop or <http://www.livingwithbirds.com>

People's Stories

Urmila Kurkalang

I was born and brought up in a Christian home, and I learned from an early age the importance of putting God first in my life. The more I read His Word and learned about God/Jesus, the more I got excited about the Christian faith and sought to follow Him.

It was on 29th April 1989 that I prayed to receive Jesus as my Lord and Saviour. That was the start of my tremendous adventure with Jesus - of trust and obedience and love. As I did then at the age of 11, I continue to find meaning and purpose in Him and the plans He has for my life.

I have learned that His strength is made perfect in my weakness and to stand on His promises through every circumstance and despite the happenstances – even when they don't make complete sense to me - from the career path that has transpired; my move to the UK in obedience to His call; meeting my life partner Jonas (from a different church tradition) and Jesus' call for us to live out the unity of the church; our daughter Samara being born 11 weeks premature; and even my Mum's sudden death in 2008 at the age of 56.

From the time I was young, I have been acutely aware of Jesus' call to His Kingdom work. My dream then was to become a missionary doctor but even though that wasn't to be, He promised to 'make my paths straight.' For about 20 years, I have had the opportunity to practise Social Work across India and the UK.

St Stephen's has been a great home church for me to get spiritually and practically equipped; with plenty of opportunities to 'Worship Jesus, Grow Together and Reach Others.' In the last couple of years, His call upon my life to ordained ministry has grown ever stronger. . I have now been accepted to train as a priest and will start at St Mellitus College in September. Part of my training involves an ongoing placement in another church and so we will be saying goodbye to St Stephen's as we join St Matthews Yiewsley.

Forsaking all else, I long to step out in obedience to His Great Commission. The prospect of theological training and ordination sparks in me an excitement to delve deeper into the Word of God and engage in pastoral care as my primary vocation.

My life is not my own and as I journey on, I seek His face and your prayer support 'that He who began the good work in me will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus,' according to His Perfect Will.' Amen.

Bookstall

This month we have two books which have been recommended by members of our church community, the first by our vicar, the second by Izzy Cole.

The US has the highest rate of incarceration in the world. The prison population has increased from 300,000 in the early 1970s to more than two million now. One in every 15 people is expected to go to prison. For black men, the most incarcerated group in America, this figure rises to one out of every three. Bryan Stevenson grew up a member of a poor black community in the racially segregated South. He was a young lawyer when he founded the Equal Justice Initiative. One of his first cases was that of Walter McMillian, a young black man who was sentenced to die for a notorious murder he insisted he didn't commit. The case drew Bryan into a tangle of conspiracy, political machination, startling racial inequality, and legal brinkmanship — and transformed his understanding of mercy and justice forever. Just Mercy is at once an unforgettable account of an idealistic, gifted lawyer's coming of age, a moving portrait of the lives of those he has defended, and an inspiring argument for compassion in the pursuit of justice.

Bob Goff has become something of a legend, and his friends consider him the world's best-kept secret. Those same friends have long insisted he write a book. What follows are paradigm shifts, musings, and stories from one of the world's most delightfully engaging and winsome people. What fuels his impact? Love. But it's not the kind of love that stops at thoughts and feelings. Bob's love takes action. Bob believes Love Does. When Love Does, life gets interesting. Each day turns into a hilarious, whimsical, meaningful chance that makes faith simple and real. Each chapter is a story that forms a book, a life. And this is one life you don't want to miss. Light and fun, unique and profound, the lessons drawn from Bob's life and attitude just might inspire you to be secretly incredible, too.
