A Welcome Note from the Vicar

Welcome to St Stephens – we are delighted that you are here today.

We strive to ensure that we are a fresh and welcoming community where everyone is made welcome and everyone knows that they matter, both to us and to God.

St Stephen's is alive with vibrant worship, intimate prayer and growing friendships. We value both the traditional and contemporary and you will find that our different services reflect a variety of ways of worship. Our desire however is that whatever the style, as people meet together they encounter the presence of our living God.

As a Christian community we are committed to following and trying to live like Jesus. We look for ways to love and serve each other and our wider community and seek to provide for those who are often forgotten by society at large.

The month of June has some important events which you will read about in this Bulletin. Thy Kingdom Come is a global prayer event leading up to Pentecost Sunday when we are called to pray for our family and friends who don't yet know Jesus. At the end of the month, our Curate Sam Sanya will be ordained as a priest and then preside at the Communion Service for the first time. These events are open to all so do feel free to join us.

Richard Bewes (1934-2019)

The Revd Richard Bewes has sadly died aged 84. Richard was formerly Rector of All Souls, Langham Place but after retirement settled in Ealing. He regularly attended St Barnabas Church in Pitshanger Lane but came to preach for us on a number of occasions. Richard was an outstanding preacher, international Bible teacher and hymn writer (we sing some of his hymns). His death is a great loss to the Church but we can be confident that he is now in the presence of the Lord he loved and served.

Did you know that going by train, instead of flying from London to Paris reduces carbon emissions by 90%. It's quicker too, if you consider the length of time in checking in etc at airports. Long distance trains from there will get you to many holiday destinations. However you get to your destination, once there, maybe try using public transport or hiring a hybrid or electric car. Often on offer for the same price. Staycation from home? Explore our beautiful country by train or bus. Have a great time, whatever you plan!

Dementia Awareness

In January, Livability, the largest UK Christian disability charity ran a workshop at St. Stephen's on dementia. Forty of us learned about what dementia is, how we can support those living with it and discussed how we could make our church more 'dementia friendly'. Below is a summary of some of the key points which others may find helpful:

- Being a dementia friendly church is not simply about providing somewhere those 'living with dementia' are welcomed but somewhere people belong.
- Dementia might show itself in a variety of ways including memory loss, inability to follow directions, difficulty learning new things, finding one's way, and apathy. It's important to ask, 'How is this person different from their normal self?'
- Dementia is an umbrella term and the specific underlying disease influences how the dementia is expressed and how it is experienced. Other conditions such as urinary tract infection or depression can produce dementia like symptoms so formal diagnosis is only made after considering the symptoms, looking at the results of mini-mental tests and a brain scan.
- Even a diagnosis does not indicate a steady regular decline; there may be periods of stability, even improvement, over varying lengths of time. Isolation and lack of interaction can be key in influencing decline.
- We were presented with various theories of how to respond and interact with those living with dementia. 'It depends' became a constant refrain, which highlighted the importance of treating each person as an individual.
- We were challenged to think about who knows the little important things about us that add to our daily well-being – what we like to be called, how many sugars we take in tea, what food we like etc.
- Rather than correcting or ignoring any errors of memory it was suggested that we should concentrate on the feelings being expressed and reflect this back. For example, if someone says they are waiting for their mother (long dead) one might say, 'You miss your mother?' Or 'Tell me about your mother'.
- We were reminded that we are the body of Christ and that regardless of diagnosis we should help each person be the best person they can be - emphasising what someone can do rather than what they can no longer do and find ways for them to be genuinely useful.
- We discussed the need to acknowledge the challenges faced by close relatives and friends who need opportunity to express their grief as they 'lose' the person they knew. [We hope to initiate a support group for this purpose.]
- A file is available in the Church Office containing further information and fact sheets about dementia and dementia friendly churches.

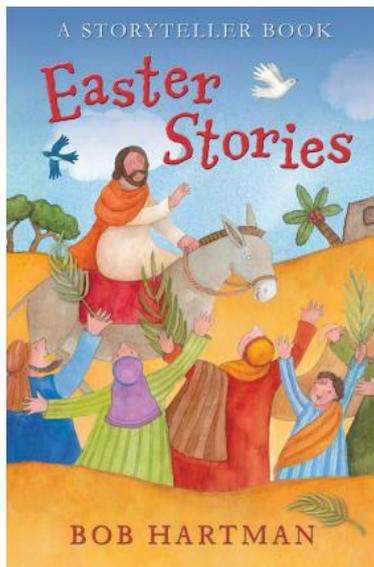

Please contact me if you have any comments or want further information.

Bookstall

This month we are highlighting two books – one for children and the other for adults. They are part of our new stock on the bookstall.

Come and have a look!

Following the tried and tested formula of his earlier Lion Storyteller titles, Bob Hartman retells a selection of Easter stories in his own inimitable style. This collection of 23 stories includes the key Bible accounts of the events of the first Easter from Palm Sunday through to Jesus' resurrection, encounters with his friends and followers, and the ascension. Bob Hartman's retellings of familiar and sometimes serious tales are fresh and engaging, making these Bible stories accessible to the young and not-so-young. Line illustrations complement the text. As a bonus, this book includes some of Bob Hartman's favourite storytelling tips.

The guides in this series are designed to help readers understand the Bible in fresh ways under the guidance of one of the world's leading New Testament scholars. Thoughtful questions, prayer suggestions, and useful background and cultural information are provided. The mysterious presence of Jesus haunts the whole story of Acts. Jesus is announced as King and Lord, not as an increasingly distant memory but as a living and powerful reality.

We call the book "The Acts of the Apostles," but we should think of it as "The Acts of Jesus: Part Two." These studies help us to do so, and to see how Jesus' acts through the apostles inform and empower our acts today. The guides in this series by Tom Wright can be used on their own or alongside his New Testament for Everyone commentaries.

Please visit the Bookstall. As well as books to sell we have a selection of books you can borrow.
