

Youth Pastor

20 hours per week pro rata to full time equivalent of £23,000 - £27,000 (dependant on skills and experience).

Do you long for young people to become followers of Jesus and for those who are already Christians to grow into mature disciples?

At St Stephen's Ealing we have a growing number of families, a thriving children's work and are keen to appoint someone from September 2020 who will both lead our existing work with young people and help older children to successfully transition to youth work.

This part-time post offers a salary of £13,143 – £15,428 per annum depending on skills and experience, a generous pension and flexible hours (which will include Sundays and some weekday evenings).

If you would like to know more, phone Steve Newbold our Vicar on 020 8810 4929.

Further details about our church and about the role, including a job description, person specification and application form are available on our website.

The deadline for applications is 8 July 2020. Interviews may well be conducted by video conference.

There is a Genuine Occupational Qualification that this post must be filled by a Christian.
